You Are the Light of the World

Our grandchildren enjoy going downtown to Comerica Park. There, we cheer on our beloved Detroit Tigers. Around the fourth inning, the younger ones start to get bored. They beg us to take them to the pavilion in the stadium, where they love to ride the merry-go-round. The merry-go-round does exactly that. It travels round and round, but it goes nowhere.

Does your life seem like an endless merry-go-round going round and round in circles but getting nowhere? You race around, taking the kids to soccer games or dance lessons. You run to doctor appointments, the bank, the grocery store.

Yet our lives do have a purpose. Jesus says, "You are the light of the world" (Matthew 5:14). You and I light up the world as we serve others in our family, our church, and our world. Our words, actions, and attitudes light up our world whenever the Gospel shines through us. The love of Jesus, who is the light of the world, shines like a bright beacon. He lightens our darkness with His forgiveness and love. The guarantee of His love—His blood shed on Calvary's cross—never expires. You and I have been saved to serve in faith and love.

About the Cover: Like rays of light stretching out over the horizon, the Lord promises that repentance and sincerity will be met with a new dawn filled with righteousness, healing, and the Lord's protection. Jesus has entered into the darkness of our sin through His death on the cross, but the break of a new day came on the first Easter morning to show us that He lives to bring us His righteousness, healing, and protection.

The Word of God

Fifth Sunday after the Epiphany

February 8, 2026

Prayer of the Day

Stand watch over your family, O Lord, that we who depend entirely on your heavenly grace may always be protected in the mighty fortress of your love; through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 58:3-9a

<sup>3</sup>“Why have we fasted, and you see it not? Why have we humbled ourselves, and you take no knowledge of it?” Behold, in the day of your fast you seek your own pleasure, and oppress all your workers. <sup>4</sup>Behold, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to hit with a wicked fist. Fasting like yours this day will not make your voice to be heard on high. <sup>5</sup>Is such the fast that I choose, a day for a person to humble himself? Is it to bow down his head like a reed, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Will you call this a fast, and a day acceptable to the LORD? <sup>6</sup>Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the straps of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? <sup>7</sup>Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover him, and not to hide yourself from your own flesh? <sup>8</sup>Then shall your light break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up speedily; your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. <sup>9</sup>Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry, and he will say, ‘Here I am.’”

Psalm 112:1-9

and have great delight in | his commandments!

the generation of the upright | will be blessed.

and their righteousness will | last forever.

<sup>4</sup>Light shines in the darkness | for the upright;
the righteous are merciful and full | of compassion.

<sup>5</sup>It is good for them to be gener- | ous in lending*
and to manage their af- | fairs with justice.

the righteous will be kept in everlast- | ing remembrance.

<sup>7</sup>They will not be afraid of any | evil rumors;
their heart is right; they put their trust | in the LORD.

until they see their desire up- | on their enemies.

and their righteousness stands fast forever; they will hold up their | head with honor.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:1-12 [13-16]

<sup>1</sup>I, when I came to you, brothers, did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God with lofty speech or wisdom. <sup>2</sup>For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. <sup>3</sup>And I was with you in weakness and in fear and much trembling, <sup>4</sup>and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, <sup>5</sup>so that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God. <sup>6</sup>Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away. <sup>7</sup>But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. <sup>8</sup>None of the rulers of this age understood this, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. <sup>9</sup>But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him" — <sup>10</sup>these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. <sup>11</sup>For who knows a person's thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. <sup>12</sup>Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. [<sup>13</sup>And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. <sup>14</sup>The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. <sup>15</sup>The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. <sup>16</sup>"For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.]

Gospel: Matthew 5:13-20

<sup>13</sup>{Jesus said,} "You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet. <sup>14</sup>You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. <sup>15</sup>Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. <sup>16</sup>In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven. <sup>17</sup>Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. <sup>18</sup>For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. <sup>19</sup>Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>20</sup>For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

For Encountering Christ

Eternal and almighty God, may your church hear your word in Jesus, behold the mystery of his presence in the Holy Supper, and live as faithful witnesses to your redeeming grace. Lord in your mercy...
